COLORED INSURANCE MEN ARE DISCHARGED

No Case Against Them in Police Court—Other Court Notes.

A sultry air pervaded the Police Court yesterday morning, but some interest was manifested in the case of the two colored men, officers of the defunct Benevolent Association, who were charged, with one of the stockholders, with securing funds on false pretences. The two men stand high in colored circles, J. H. Blackwell being the principal of the colored school in Manchester, and W. H. Hatcher, a well known insurance man.

The charge was dismissed on the ground that there was nothing criminal shown. The men claim that there is nothing in the affair, and that they are doing all they can to settle up the matter to the best advantage of all concerned.

P. J. Cousins was fined $10 on the charge of having had fish in his possession. He promptly took an appeal, and the case was certified to the upper court. Five negro women were each fined $5 for being disorderly to the annoyance of the neighbors.

Josephine Jones, colored, was held, pending further information, on the charge of taking a ring from the residence of J. W. Danney, on South Laurel Street. The case went over to the 21st.

And then Luther Davis was held for ninety days as a suspicious character.

YALE PLAYS HERE.

Will Meet the College Spiders at Broad Street Park.

The Yale University baseball team will appear here this afternoon. This is the first time for many years that the Yale team has played in Richmond, although for the past three or four years Norfolk has had the opportunity of seeing the annual Yale-Virginia game on Easter Monday.

This is a rare opportunity which the Richmond people will want to take advantage of. The "Big Four" college teams play. Princeton defeated the Philadelphia National League team here last year. The game was a pretty one, and the local diamond. Yale will, this year, meet the Richmond College "Spiders".

The college boys have made since the Randolph-Macon disaster. It may be safely predicted that the game will, at least, be a close one. After the Randolph-Macon game, Richmond met and successfully defeated Hampden-Sydney and Fredericksburg Colleges, and Washington and Lee University and lost to Roanoke by the close score of 6 to 4.

The contest for the championship among the four northern universities, usually results in victory for Princeton or Yale, so it is easily seen that Yale is the best, or at least second best college team in the country.

Yale's line up will be as follows: O'Brien, shortstop; Kinsley, third base; Cote, leftfield; Bowman, first base; Barnes, centerfield; Haiscup or Smith, rightfield; Wallis or Robinson, second base; Erwin or Chopin, catcher; Jackson, Bell, Pratt or Emerick, pitcher.

STUDENT ILL.

Mr. Handy Taken Sick on Train.

Lectures at Richmond College.

The whole body of students and faculty of Richmond College was filled with the deepest anxiety when it learned yesterday that Mr. H. B. Handy, one of the most popular students in the college was sick with appendicitis at Salisbury.

While there are hopes of his recovery, he is dangerously ill.

The second of the course of lectures on Education at the college will be given this afternoon at 5 o'clock by Dr. H. H. Rucker, B. A., principal West End School. The subject is "School Organization; the First Day in School."

The first of the course, given Tuesday, by Dr. C. H. Dunston, of Richmond College, was "Qualifications of a Teacher," and was largely attended. This course is for the teachers in the city and the college students who expect to become teachers.

On Monday night next Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, of New York, will speak in the College Chapel at 8:15 o'clock on "Some Principles of Modern Education."

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Excitement Occasioned by Conduct of Four Young Men.

BOND ORDINANCE ADOPTED

Nothing Heard From the Burnetts—Politics Getting Warm.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.
There was a whole lot of excitement on Hull Street last night about 9 o'clock, occasioned by the arrest of four young men on the charge of fighting near the corner of Twelfth Street. When the four were carried to the station house they were followed by more than a score of other citizens, to see the outcome of the matter. From a number of the witnesses it was learned that a young man named W. E. Walker had been set upon by three others, named J. W. Hobeck, Joe Smith and Alexander Cleary. The three latter were alleged to have knocked the other down and otherwise badly handled him. As a result, the young man Walker was released on his own recognizance, and the others were held for their appearance before the mayor this morning. The arrest was made by Officer Jones.

Nothing Heard From Burnett.
Up to a late hour last night nothing had been heard of E. S. Burnett and his pretty wife, who are charged with making away with their infant. It was stated last night that the couple had gone to Baltimore, and the police of that city have been asked to look out for them. Many expressions of regret were made at the predicament of the young woman is in, as she and her people have lived here for a long while, and are thought much of by all who know them.

Ordinance Was Adopted.

Council met in called session last night for the purpose of adding upon the ordinance providing for the bond issue of $55,000. The ordinance had been presented at the last meeting of this body, but under the law it could not be acted upon at that time. The ordinance was adopted, and the bids of the Sinking Fund Commission for $5,000 and the Mechanics' and Merchants' Bank for the remainder, were accepted.

The revised book of ordinances, as issued by Council and printed by Lumpkin, was received. This is a valuable book, containing all of the laws and ordinances now in force in the city, together with other valuable information.

GREAT RUSH FOR BEN HUR SEATS

A Long Line in Front of the Academy the Whole Day.

A great rush for seats for Ben Hur was made yesterday. From early morning until the doors closed at 6 o'clock, a solid stream of patrons passed in front of the boxoffice and clamored for a chance of spending their money. Last night, when the doors of the Academy were locked in the face of several hundred persons, the box office was piled high with money of all kinds, and so large was the total that the First National Bank kept its vault open to receive the enormous belated deposit.

"You may feel sure," said Manager Rex, at every drug store and other place of popular resort, the various candidates have their friends out in force. The sentiment is quite evenly divided, as between the senatorial candidates, and those for Governor. The fight between Rives and Pulliam for the Legislature, is hot, both candidates doing a lot of hand-shaking and other things calculated to impress the prospective voter. A large party of Senator Martin's friends are preparing to attend the meeting at the Academy in Richmond to-morrow night.

Gentry-Williamson.

Mr. W. M. Gentry and Miss Florence E. Williamson were married last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. J. Williamson, in the presence of a large number of their friends. Mr. J. A. Bull-van, of West Point, Va., performed the ceremony. Mr. Harvey Sampson was best man, and Miss Lizzie Gentry, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. After the ceremony a reception was tendered and they were entertained by the West End Amateurs. They will make their future home at No. 46 West Fourteenth Street.

The popularity of the young couple was attested by the number of presents received, among them being a handsome clock, presented by the fellow-workmen of the Southern Railway shops, of which Mr. Gentry is an employee.

Joseph E. Johnson Camp met in regular session at their hall last night and transacted the usual business.

A cake sale will be held by the ladies of Cowardin Avenue Church to-morrow evening.

A quiet but pretty marriage took place Wednesday evening at three o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shuck, on Baldwin Street, on Matter Hill, when Miss Lulu Askew became the bride of Mr. John Mason, of Caroline county, in the presence of a number of their intimate friends. The bride was prettily gowned in white organdy, and carried white carnations and maidenhair ferns. Mr. P. H. Marshall was best man, and Mr. John Askew, brother of the bride was the only other attendant. Rev. Joel T. Tucker was the officiating minister. After the ceremony Mrs. Mason donned a traveling suit, and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Askew, and a party of friends, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, where a Virginia wedding supper and dance were given in their home. Bring Swedish Immigrants Here

Mr. Leo Todd, a labor agent of this city, has gone to New York with a view to bringing to this city a large party of Swedish emigrants. He is one of the most active parts of Virginia. It is understood that twenty or thirty of them are to be employed in a lumber camp in Lunenburg county, and others in various parts of the State. The demand for desirable white laborers is growing rapidly in the farming and other rural occupations, and agents are now turning their attention to diverting the time of emigration from the West and Middle West to this section and States further South.

Appeal Case Heard.

In the United States District Court yesterday, Judge Edmund Wallall heard argument in an appeal from the referee's decision in the matter of Wyndham Bolling, bankrupt, and as to the claim of Emmett Dickerson, of this city. The case is one of the many which are now being argued in the recent adjudication of Mr. Bolling as a bankrupt, and is an appeal from the decision as to the claim of Mr. Dickerson.

Attorney George A. Hanson represents Mr. Dickerson, and Messrs. Leigh R. Page and J. Jordan Leake represent the trustee of the bankrupt estate. All three lawyers argued the case yesterday, and Mr. Hanson, who opened the argument, will close it to-day.

Will Soon Pay Pensions.

The office of auditor of public accounts will commence the payment of pensions under the act of 1888 to about 1,500 pensioners about May 1st, and for a few months the act is being filed in the auditor's office now. Checks will be sent out May 1st to all then on the roll. It would be well for persons entitled to pensions under this act (1888) to file their certificates at once, and thus greatly facilitate the issue of checks.

Brief Respite Granted.

A respite until May 12—has been granted William Hairton, of Tazewell, who was to have hung yesterday for murder.
